BORDEAUX COTES DE FRANCS
HERITIERS GEORGE THIENPOST

2012

“This shows class for the vintage with smoke, meat, berry and currant character. Full body, firm tannins and a fresh finish. Refined and polished. Better in 2017.”

James Suckling, Février 2015

Score: 90 / 100

“Really lovely juicy fruit. Fresh and lively and fluid. So digestible and drinkable.”

Jancis Robinson, Avril 2013

“The 2012 Puygueraud is a soft, supple red to drink now and over the next handful of years. Licorice, tobacco, menthol, plums and earthy notes are all laced together nicely in the glass. Medium in body and already quite forward, the 2012 is an excellent choice for drinking over the next handful of years. An intriguing array of sweet and savory notes lingers on the inviting finish. The tannins are a bit gritty, but this is a solid effort nonetheless.”

Antonio Galloni, Vinous, Janvier 2016

Score : 90/100

“Tenue solide, tannins présents mais mûres, fruits noirs et prune, bonne allonge rigoureuse.”

Bettane et Dessauve, Avril 2013

Score : 15,5/20

“Bright, with a lively mix of pepper, anise, tobacco, black cherry and mulled black currant flavors that mesh nicely through the medium-weight finish. Drink now through 2016. 10,250 cases made.”

James Molesworth, Wine Spectator, Avril 2015

“Plummy and upfront with supple tannins and a wonderful approachability. The Merlot has been harvested at an optimal time in this vintage, combining ripe fruit with freshness and medium body and weight.”
